Laoag

Laoag is the provincial capital of Ilocos Norte, and is usually accessed by air in a short flight from Manila.

Many tourists visit Laoag to explore its heritage sites featuring Spanish colonial buildings, Philippine-baroque churches, stunning Paoay Church and Bell Tower, and Marcos-era mansions.

Vigan

Established in the 16th century, Vigan, a UNESCO World Heritage Site on the west coast of Luzon, is the oldest surviving Spanish colonial city in the country. It is also the best-preserved example of a planned Spanish colonial town in Asia, and has a unique European atmosphere.

Legaspi & Donsol

Legaspi City, Albay, is one of the Bicol Region's top tourist destination. It is where the Mayon Volcano, one of the Philippines' most famous volcanoes is located.

Mayon Volcano is the Philippines' most active volcano and is considered to be the world's most perfectly formed volcano for its symmetrical cone.

The largest annual congregation of Whale Sharks is in Donsol from December to May. These gentle giants are migratory animals, found in warm tropical waters as they follow their food supply.

They migrate to Donsol in vast numbers to take advantage of the dense food concentration of plankton and krill.

Bohol

A wonderful island, Bohol has beautiful tropical beaches, coral reefs, and the famously distinctive Chocolate Hills.

Take a cruise on the Loboc river, enjoy scuba-diving, or go dolphin and whale-watching. See the Philippines tarsier - the world's smallest primate. Relax on the beautiful beaches of Panglao Island.

Cebu

Cebu is an island in central Philippines which has Cebu City as its capital. A City tour, or the popular Countryside tour, will introduce you to historic sites and buildings, as well as fascinating small towns and communities.

Boracay

Tripadvisor voted Boracay as the No.1 beach & sun destination in the whole of Asia.

The famous White Beach has powdery sand and stretches for two and a half miles. There's an endless list of sports and activities on offer, island-hopping boat-trips, plus hundreds of places to eat, drink and be merry.

Manila

Manila is the Philippines' vibrant, bustling, capital city. Our holidays generally start and finish here. The people of Manila are known for their warmth and hospitality.

Why not experience the rich history of Manila with a tour, including old Intramuros and Fort Santiago.
