Laoag

Laoag is the provincial capital of Ilocos Norte, and is usually accessed by air in a short flight from Manila.

Many tourists visit Laoag to explore its heritage sites featuring Spanish colonial buildings, Philippine-baroque churches, stunning Paoay Church and Bell Tower, and Marcos-era mansions.

Pagudpud

North of Vigan can be found the beautiful beach of Pagudpud, located in Ilocos Norte.

Crystal blue waters and white sand makes Pagudpud a favourite destination among tourists. Pagudpud is secluded, calm and relaxed, making it a great getaway place to unwind.

Vigan

Established in the 16th century, Vigan, a UNESCO World Heritage Site on the west coast of Luzon, is the oldest surviving Spanish colonial city in the country. It is also the best-preserved example of a planned Spanish colonial town in Asia, and has a unique European atmosphere.

Manila

Manila is the Philippines' vibrant, bustling, capital city. Our holidays generally start and finish here. The people of Manila are known for their warmth and hospitality.

Why not experience the rich history of Manila with a tour, including old Intramuros and Fort Santiago.
